

W1 is the area between the fitted model's CDF and the data's

(a) probability density function (PDF)

(b) cumulative distribution function (CDF)

