W1 is the area between the fitted model's CDF and the data's