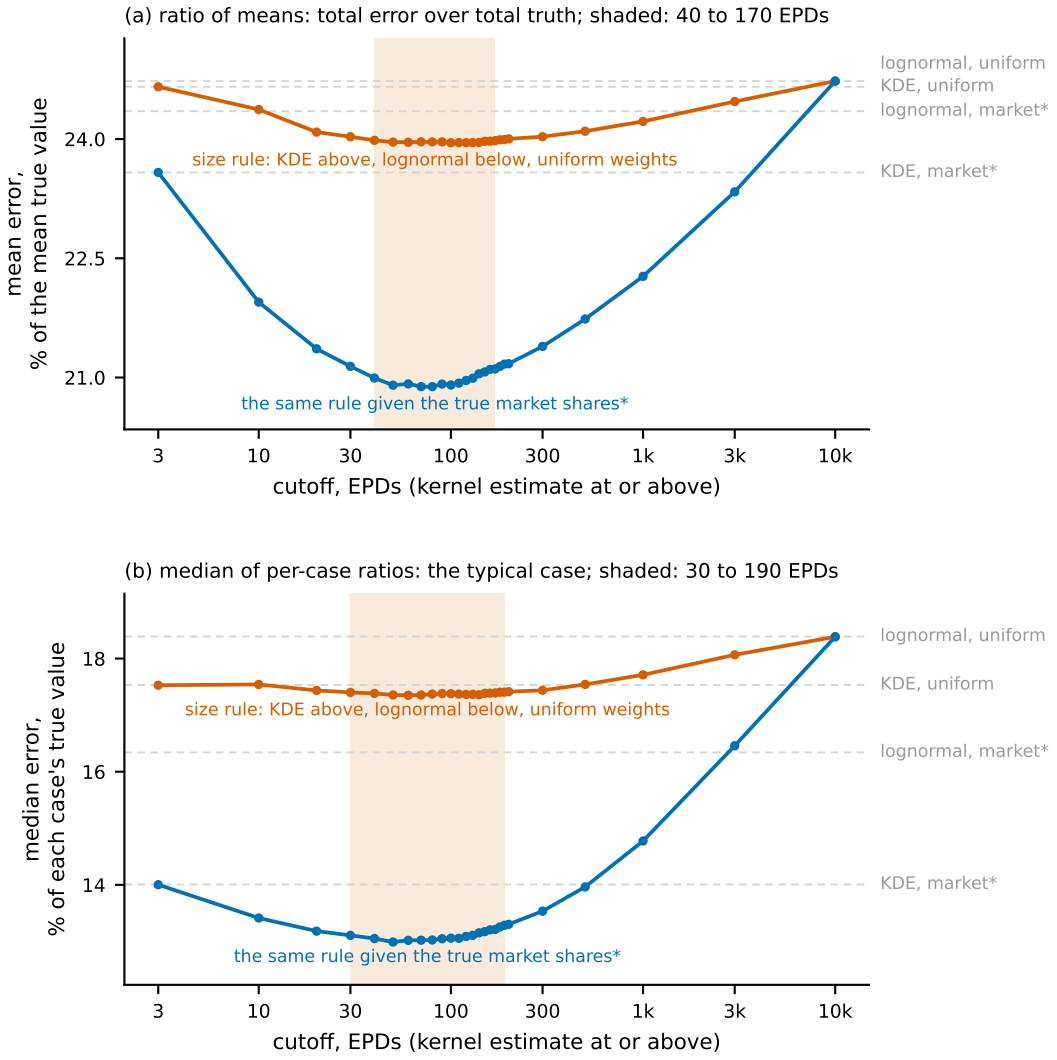
Switching family by size beats either family alone over a wide band of cutoffs, on either statistic



* needs market shares, which are not published: the blue curves and the starred lines are a ceiling, not choices